

CIDER

Ampleforth (Ampleforth, North Yorks)

Ampleforth Cider, Medium Dry 6.5%

For more than 200-years the Benedictine monks of Ampleforth Abbey have been growing apples in the Abbey Orchards. It is crafted slowly in small batches from early to mid-season hand-picked apples. It has a light naturally golden colour, zingy and bright.

Recent awards include a gold award at the 2019 CAMRA Northern Cider and Perry Championships and a bronze at the National Cider and Perry Championships.

Barbourne (Worcester, Worcestershire)

Gwynt y Ddraig (Pontypridd, Wales)

Black Dragon, Medium/Dry 7.2%

Rich in colour, body and flavour with a fresh fruity aroma. CAMRA National Silver award winner 2011. Contains sulphites.

Hecks (Street, Somerset)

Port Wine of Glastonbury, Medium Sweet 6.5%

Port Wine of Glastonbury is not a wine nor is it port. It's a cider apple variety that has a reddish colour to its flesh (which makes the cider an odd colour). This cider has its origins in orchards below Glastonbury Tor. Fermented in Oak barrels it is easy on the palate. This is a true session cider with lemony tones.

Hurst View (Wheaton Aston, Staffordshire)

Bishops Blend, Sweet 6%

A small cider producer run by Nick and Sue Rowbotham. The locally grown apples are pressed, blended, and left to ferment with its own wild yeasts. The cider may change from batch to batch as wild yeasts are as unpredictable as Mother Nature. Sweet and sharp with a fruity aroma. Contains no sulphites.

Mad Apple (Holford, Somerset)

Enok's Old Faithful, Medium 6%

A medium cider produced from 100% cider apples. It is 100% juice and no chemicals are involved, no added sugar or yeast. It has a full flavour and as it runs to the back of your mouth, it has a dryish feel. Contains no sulphites.

Pure North (Holmfirth, West Yorks)

Fusion, Medium Dry 5.9%

A clean sharp cider made using a blend of four cider apple varieties. Voted best cider of Yorkshire 2012 by CAMRA. Free of all chemicals.

Rich's (Highbridge, Somerset)

Legbender, Medium 6%

Rich's is a family run business. They have been making cider for over 60 years. Traditionally produced with a blend of cider apples grown in Somerset. It is full-flavoured, having been matured in aged oak barrels.

'Flavoured Cider'

Broadoak (Clutton Hill, Somerset)

Mango, Medium/Sweet 4%

An indulgent rich and fruity blend of Somerset cider and Indian mango imparting a finely balanced taste with an inviting fragrant aroma.

Celtic Marshes (Bishop's Frome, Heref)

Tutti Frutti, Medium 4%

A cider liberally imparted with cherry and pineapple – exotic flavours to provide a unique tropical twist.

Pure North (Holmfirth, West Yorks)

Ginger Tom, Medium 5.8%

A balanced cider made with cider apples infused with root ginger at the end of the fermentation. Free of all chemicals.

PERRY

Broadoak (Clutton Hill, Somerset)

The family have been making cider and perry for 6 generations since 1841. This perry is pale, opaque, rich and fruity.

Country Wine

Once again we are pleased to have a selection of traditionally made wines from Skinningrove Country Wines based in the old ironstone-mining village of Skinningrove on the North Yorkshire coast. They are a small producer established in 1999. All the wines are hand made using recipes based on traditional methods and are fermented using natural sugars.

Most ingredients are organic and sourced locally. No animal products are used in the wines and there are no added artificial colourings, flavourings or preservatives. As the wines are natural, each year's ingredients produce a unique vintage.
